

The Merchants Trust PLC: Investor Document

Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive

Allianz Global Investors GmbH (the “AIFM”) is required to manage The Merchants Trust PLC (the “AIF”) in accordance with the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive. Accordingly, certain information is required to be provided to prospective investors in the AIF prior to their investment in the AIF. The following table provides the required information or, where applicable, directs investors to where such information is located within the publicly available materials of the AIF.

Information to be disclosed	AIFMD article	Information
General Fund Information
Investment strategy and objectives of the alternative investment fund ("AIF")	Art 23(1)(a)	See “Company Overview” and “Investment Policy” section of the Annual Report.
Information on where master AIF is established and where the underlying funds are established	Art 23(1)(a)	Not applicable.
Types of assets in which the AIF may invest and the techniques it may employ and all associated risks	Art 23(1)(a)	See “Company Overview” and “Investment Policy” section of the Annual Report; the “Risks” table in the Strategic Report section of the Annual Report, setting out a Description and the Mitigation against the principal risks and uncertainties; and Note 16 in the Notes to the Financial Statements in the Annual Report.
Applicable investment restrictions	Art 23(1)(a)	See “Company Overview” and “Investment Policy” section of the Annual Report.
Circumstances in which the AIF may use leverage, restrictions on using leverage and any collateral and asset reuse arrangements, the types and sources of leverage permitted and the associated risks	Art 23(1)(a)	Under the Articles of Association of the AIF the maximum level of leverage permitted (without an ordinary resolution of the AIF and such consent or sanction by the holders of the 3.65% cumulative preference stock as is required for modification of their rights) is an amount equal to the adjusted aggregate of the amount paid up or credited as paid up on the share capital of the AIF, and the total of the capital and reserves (including any share premium account and capital redemption reserve fund) but excluding (a) the unrealised appreciation on investments, (b) sums set aside for taxation (other than for taxation, if any, provided on unrealised capital gains), (c) amounts attributable to outside shareholders in subsidiaries of the company, (d) any amount

		attributable to goodwill or other intangible assets (other than goodwill arising on consolidation) and (e) any balance on revenue account. The AIF may use leverage within guidelines laid down by the Board of Directors. In normal market conditions gearing will not exceed 35% of net assets. [Further information to be provided regarding the maximum leverage calculated according to the gross method and the commitment method.] There are no arrangements in place regarding collateral or asset reuse arrangements, with the exception that cash margins are posted with a clearing broker for covered call overwriting options. Total exposure is limited to 15% of the AIF's portfolio value and all options positions are covered by shares owned by the AIF.
Maximum level of leverage which the AIFM is entitled to employ on behalf of the AIF	Art 23(1)(a)	The AIFM is entitled to employ leverage within risk limits agreed with the Board of Directors. The maximum level of leverage which the AIFM is entitled to employ on behalf of the AIF is expressed as a ratio of fund exposure to the net asset of the fund. Under both the gross method and the commitment method, the leverage limit is set at a ratio of 2.0:1.

Description of how the AIFM ensures a fair treatment of investors and a description of any preferential treatment or the right to obtain preferential treatment obtained by any investor	Art 23(1)(j)	The AIFM is committed to treating AIF investors fairly. The AIFM bases its management of investment funds on the principle of equal treatment by ensuring that no specific investment funds or investors in investment funds receive preferential treatment to the detriment of others. The decision-making processes and organisational structures of the AIFM have been designed accordingly. The AIFM has numerous in-house guidelines and processes in place to ensure that all investors are treated fairly at all times. Pursuant to the guidelines governing the avoidance of conflicts of interest, the interests of investors always take precedence over the interests of the AIFM, its staff or any affiliated companies in any instances of potential conflict. If actual or potential conflicts of interests arise between individual investors or groups of investors, the AIFM has conflict management processes and procedures in place to ensure that such conflicts are fairly handled. In exceptional cases where a conflict proves to be insoluble or unavoidable, the AIFM, acting on behalf of the AIF, shall ensure transparent disclosure to investors. The procedures for ensuring fair treatment of all investors include extensive regulations governing the execution of trades (e.g. order aggregation, allocation of securities to portfolios, regulations governing participation in new issues, intra-portfolio transactions, appropriation of trading commissions, execution price monitoring) and the management of portfolios (e.g. monitoring consistent performance among all portfolios that pursue the same strategy or avoiding transactions that may constitute market abuse). In addition, all members of staff at the AIFM

		are bound by compliance regulations that govern the AIFM's requirements of its staff in respect of integrity and ethical standards and list all relevant legal and regulatory requirements. The Compliance department is an independent body that monitors the procedures in place to ensure fair treatment of all investors. It continuously monitors the proper handling of conflicts of interests and the fair treatment of investors. For details of pre-emption rights, please see the resolutions set out in the "Notice of Meeting" section of the Annual Financial Report.

Depositary
Any arrangement made by the depositary to contractually discharge itself of liability and any changes with respect to depositary liability	Art 23(2)	There are no such arrangements.
Delegation of functions of the depositary	Art 21(11)	The depositary is entitled to delegate its safe-keeping functions in relation to financial instruments and other assets, provided that the requirements for such delegation by the depositary as provided for in Directive 2011/61/EU on Alternative Investment Fund Managers and other applicable laws have been complied with. This will generally be subject to the depositary providing prior notice to the AIF and/or the AIFM. The depositary will be required to exercise all due skill, care and diligence in the selection of any delegate, and to continue to exercise due skill, care and diligence in its periodic review and monitoring of that delegate.
Discharge of liability of the depositary for loss by a third party to whom custody of financial instruments has been delegated	Art 21(14)(b)	The liability of the depositary shall not be discharged by delegation of its safe-keeping functions except where liability has been transferred and discharged in accordance with Directive 2011/61/EU on Alternative Investment Fund Managers.
Provision in the contract with the depositary on the possibility of transfer and reuse of AIF assets	Art 23(1)(o)	Generally, neither the depositary nor any delegate will have the right to re-use any property held by the depositary or such delegate. However, if the AIF appoints a prime broker and that prime broker is the same legal entity as a delegate of the depositary, such prime broker may have a right to re-use property if agreed between the AIF and/or the AIFM and such prime broker. The contract with the depositary also provides for the agreement of terms relating to the transfer of assets according to the instructions of a prime broker.

Securities Financing Transactions Regulation

In accordance with Article 14(1) of Regulation (EU) 2015/2365 (the “SFTR”), the Manager is required to provide prospective investors with information relating to “securities financing transactions” and “total return swaps” (as defined under SFTR) that the AIF is authorised to use and include a clear statement that such transactions and instruments are used. Pursuant to the SFTR, we hereby confirm that the AIF is not invested in any “securities financing transactions” and “total return swaps” (as defined under the SFTR).
